

Color, texture and heritage.

King Seiko's birthplace in Kameido in central Tokyo is celebrated in the violet color of the dial that echoes the delicate shade of the 'Fuji' wisteria that grows in profusion at Kameido's Tenjin Shrine. The softness of the color contrasts with the sharp angles of the indexes and the strong, three-dimensional and textured marker at 12 o'clock.

KING SEIKO

SPB291J1

Automatic | 6R31

Stainless steel case and bracelet /
Additional leather strap / Box-shaped sapphire crystal with anti-reflective coating on the inner surface /
Screw case back /
Case diameter 37.0mm /
10 bar W.R.

KING SEIKO